Dear Reader:

This publication is based on results of the Vocational School Graduate Follow-Up Survey conducted in June, 1985 by the Planning and Evaluation Division, Nova Scotia Department of Human Resources Development and Training. It is the first of a planned series of annual reports summarizing the employment results of graduates from Nova Scotia's Regional Vocational Schools one year after graduation.

The information provided serves several purposes. The employment outcomes of previous graduates is important information for counsellors and educators to utilize during the course of their work and their interaction with students. Moreover students themselves can take these statistics into account when making career decisions. For the Government of Nova Scotia, the findings are a useful tool in assessing vocational training in the Province. The monitoring of vocational school employment outcomes provides a basis to determine labour market needs and program adjustments which may be necessary in the future.

In closing, I wish to thank those graduates who took the time to complete the survey questionnaire. Their efforts will help to improve our vocational training program, and enable students, educators and administrators to make more informed decisions.

Yours sincerely,

Terence R.B. Donahoe

INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

The Vocational School Graduate Follow-Up Survey Report, 1985 was compiled by the Planning and Evaluation Division of the Department of Human Resources Development and Training, Government of Nova Scotia. The Survey covered all 1984 graduates from Nova Scotia's Regional Vocational Schools. Questionnaires were sent to each graduate approximately one year after graduation to determine their employment results since leaving school.

In 1984, there were approximately 3,136 graduates from Provincial Regional Vocational Schools. The questionnaire was sent to all graduates, of which 2,041 responded, yielding a response rate of 66.1 percent, adjusted for undeliverable mail. The summary of employment statistics on each page of this Report reflects the information provided by the respondents and provides a Province-wide picture of employment experiences by program. All information reported describes the employment status of graduates as of July, 1985.

The objective of the Vocational School Graduate Follow-Up Survey is to provide information on the labour market results of graduates. This information will be useful to the Government, educators, counsellors, and students. In the case of students, the information will provide some guidance in making career decisions. The Government, in turn, will be able to use the information as a measure of the effectiveness of their vocational training program in terms of labour market needs.

The Report is composed of four Sections. This Introduction is followed by a User's Guide which explains the terms and statistics presented in the Survey results. It is important that users clearly understand the survey terminology, the methodology used to compile results, and the presentation format. General guidelines are also included in the User's Guide regarding the interpretation of Survey results. Following the User's Guide is an Overview of Survey Results including a summary of program rankings according to the percentage of respondents reporting any employment, and the percentage of respondents having training-related employment. The major findings of the Graduate Follow-Up Survey are found in the final section of the Report which contains program statistics detailing the employment experiences of respondents. These one-page profiles, on each program, contain the following survey results: distribution of employment by type of employment (full time/part time, temporary/permanent); numbers unemployed and not in the labour force; distribution of employment by location; and most frequent wage levels, occupations and industries.

The Report also includes four appendices; the first outlines the Major Occupational Groups of the Canadian Classification and Dictionary of Occupations used for coding purposes in the survey; the second outlines the Standard Industrial Classification Industry Divisions also used for coding purposes in the survey; a copy of the questionnaire used in the survey is included as the third appendix; and the final appendix lists the names and addresses of the Vocational Schools covered by the Survey.

USER'S GUIDE

USER'S GUIDE

The User's Guide explains the terms and statistics presented in this Report. Each page of the Program Statistics Section contains a statistical summary for a program. All pages follow the same format. As an example, Accounting (presented on the next page) is used in the explanation which follows.

However, before beginning detailed explanations, several general observations should be noted regarding the use of survey statistics. First, employment levels change over time; the information contained in this Report describes the status of graduates in July 1985. Second, while the overall survey response rate of 66.1 percent, and the overall number of responses, 2,041, are excellent for a mailout survey, some individual programs may have a lower response rate, and may involve small numbers. In cases where programs had a small graduating class, persons using this information, such as counsellors, or students making career decisions, should exercise caution and use judgement in their interpretation of the statistics.

Definitions

Program Location lists the school or schools where the program (named at the top of the page) was given in 1983/84. The Accounting program was offered at Annapolis, Burridge, Canso, Dartmouth, Kings, Lunenburg, and Shelburne Regional Vocational Schools.

Survey Population is the number of people who graduated from the program in 1984. For Accounting, the survey population was 165.

Respondents are the number of graduates from the program who answered the questionnaire. Accounting had 117 respondents.

Response Rate is the percentage of the survey population responding to the questionnaire. The response rate for Accounting was 70.9%. It can be expressed as:

$$\frac{\text{Number of respondents}}{\text{Survey Population}} \times 100 = \frac{117}{165} \times 100 = 70.9\%$$

Summary of Employment Status of Respondents outlines the type of employment graduates obtained approximately one year after graduation, as well as the proportions unemployed and not in the labour force. Numbers are reported in both percentages (in parentheses) and actual figures. All percentages in this section are expressed in terms of the number of respondents. For example, 20.5% of respondents are unemployed in the Accounting program, that is 24 out of 117. Type of employment is indicated in a matrix with reference to (1) employment category and (2) relation of employment to training. This allows the user to determine specifically what type of employment graduates obtained. For example it is seen that in Accounting 23.1% or 27 graduates were working in full time - permanent employment which is related to training. The categories which are used in the matrix are defined below.

(1) Employment Category

Employment is specified in terms of permanent/temporary and part time/full time. There are four employment categories outlined in the Summary of Employment Status of Respondents.

Full Time - Permanent employment is 30 hours per week or more without a termination date.

Full Time - Temporary employment is 30 hours per week or more ending after a given period.

Part Time - Permanent employment is less than 30 hours duration per week with no planned termination date.

Part Time - Temporary employment is less than 30 hours duration per week ending after a given period.

Totals for the above four employment categories are indicated in the fourth column labelled, "TOTALS". In Accounting for example, the total employed in full time - permanent employment is 44.5% or 52.

(2) Relation of Employment to Training

Relation of employment to training is determined from responses to the survey question: "To what extent do you feel your job relates to the training you received in vocational school?" Three categories are identified:

Related employment is work which is directly related to training. The number of people who responded that their job "was very closely related" or "closely related" to their training on the survey are reported under this category.

Somewhat related employment is work which is indirectly related to training. Under this category only the number who responded that their job was "somewhat related" to training are reported.

Employment not related to training is work which has very little or no relationship to the training received at vocational school. The number of people who responded that their job was "not very related" or "not at all related" to training are reported.

Totals for "relation of employment to training" are indicated below each category in the fifth row of numbers which is labelled, "TOTAL EMPLOYED". In Accounting for example, 35.1% or 49 are employed in jobs related to training. The last set of figures in this row gives the TOTAL EMPLOYED at any type of job. For Accounting 74.4% or 87 persons are employed at any type of job. The employed are defined as those who are working or holding a job from which they are absent due to illness, vacation, labour dispute, etc.

The last two lines of this section give the numbers UNEMPLOYED and NOT IN THE LABOUR FORCE. The unemployed are those who are not working but are seeking employment. Persons not in the labour force are neither working nor seeking employment. In Accounting, 20.5% or 24 are unemployed and 5.1% or six are not in the labour force.

ROUNDING NOTE

In some cases percentages in the "SUMMARY OF EMPLOYMENT STATUS OF RESPONDENTS" may not add up to the totals indicated, due to rounding. All percentages have been rounded to one decimal point. For accuracy, the percentages in cell totals are calculated from actual number totals rather than adding the rounded cell percentages.

ADDITIONAL CHARACTERISTICS OF EMPLOYED RESPONDENTS outlines locations, wage levels, occupational categories and industries of employment. Again, numbers are reported in percentages (in parentheses) and actual figures. All percentages in this section are expressed in terms of the number of employed respondents. In Accounting for example, 3.4% or 3 out of the 87 employed graduates are working in the region of North-East Nova Scotia.

Location of employment by region is outlined with reference to regions of Nova Scotia as well as other parts of Canada when applicable. The definition of the regions are summarized below.

Halifax County	all of the Halifax Metro region and surrounding county
South-West Nova Scotia	Digby, Lunenburg, Queen, Shelburne and Yarmouth Counties
Annapolis Valley	Annapolis, Hants, and Kings Counties
North-East Nova Scotia	Antigonish, Colchester, Cumberland, Guysborough and Pictou Counties

Cape Breton	Cape Breton, Inverness, Richmond and Victoria Counties
Other Atlantic Provinces	Newfoundland, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island
Central Canada	Quebec and Ontario
Western Canada	Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia
Territories	Yukon and North West Territories
U.S.A.	mainland United States of America
Other Areas of Canada	indicated in cases when graduates are employed in various areas of Canada outside of Nova Scotia and the most frequent region cannot be determined

Most frequent wage levels (per hour) are reported. The questionnaire defines four hourly wage levels: $4.00 to $6.00, $6.01 to $8.00, $8.01 to $10.00, and over $10.00 per hour. When applicable, figures for the three most frequent wage levels of employed graduates are indicated.

Most frequent occupational categories are indicated next. The occupational categories are the 22 major occupational groups defined in the Canadian Classification and Dictionary of Occupations. The occupational groups which are referred to in this document are defined in Appendix I. When applicable, figures for the three most frequent occupational categories of employed graduates are indicated. In some cases, where particular categories are tied for being one of the three most frequent, more than three categories are reported.

Most frequent industries of employment are also indicated for each program. Industries referred to are the industry divisions of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC). The SIC is a guide which defines economic production by groups of producing units or industries engaged in similar types of activity in relation to goods and services. The major industry divisions of the SIC which are referred to in the report that follows are defined in Appendix II. When applicable, figures for the three most frequent industries of employment for graduates are indicated. In some cases where particular categories are tied for being one of the three most frequent, more than three industries are reported.

OVERVIEW OF SURVEY RESULTS

Employed One Year After Graduation

Analysis of data from the Vocational School Graduate Survey reveals that 75.1 percent of 1984 graduates were employed in July of 1985. This figure represents employment at any type of job.

Relationship of Employment to Training

Although 75.1 percent of graduates were employed, 40.0 percent found jobs related to the training received in vocational school. 53.1 percent were employed in jobs which were either somewhat related to training, not very related to training or not at all related to training.

Unemployed or Not in the Labour Force

The Survey indicated that 20.4 percent of the graduates were unemployed in July of 1985 while 4.5 percent had dropped out of the labour market. It should be noted that this level of unemployment is comparable to the overall youth unemployment level for July of 1985 which Statistics Canada reported to be 21.1 percent for Nova Scotia.

Employment Results by Program

Lists of programs ranked according to employment results are contained in Table 1 and Table 2. Table 1 ranks programs according to the percentage of respondents who were employed at any type of job in July 1985. Table 2 ranks programs according to the percentage of respondents employed in jobs related to their training. Detailed results for each of the 65 programs offered by Vocational Schools in 1984 are found in the body of the Report.
